Pelham Manor, New York

Dear Bill, being the popular kid that I am it seems that I have used up most of my original thoughts on other people! ha! ha!

Let me see what sordid attempts have we embarked upon to get the various discussions to the pig-pens!
The SAT's --- English class (by the way the you, me, & me in English to give our new Eng. teacher mad. ha! ha! I'll have to divulge some of my horrid plans!!)

ok! well since you'd be here next year I'll tell you all that!!
See you 'round!
Mike

SCHOOL SONG

The rolling hills of Stoneleigh
Lie beyond her stately walls,
And smiling faces greet you Within her spacious halls.
All nature smiles on Stoneleigh,
And students find the while
That friendships ripen quickly
In the sunshine of a smile.
So let us pledge to Stoneleigh
That when we must depart,
The friends that we have made here
Will cling close to every heart.

A DEDICATION . . .

EDWARD EVERETT EMERSON

Our yearbook would not be complete without a special tribute to our "Mr. E.," who has given the school his time and thought. His unfailing humor and infinite patience have been an inspiration to all of us. In sincere gratitude for the wonderful understanding he has shown, as well as his interest, We, the Senior Class of 1957, wish to dedicate this Liber Anni to Mr. Emerson as an expression of our deep appreciation for his fine work here at Stoneleigh.

Hi -

It's been great rooming across the hall from you. You and Marcia are really two ponies. We have had more fun standing in the door-way after rooming and watching the action across the hall. As I stand sit here thinking of what to say I think of you at the auto bank. You were there right?! 😊 Oh, I guess it was someone else.

Never forget the fun we've had at Deerfield Operetta's & How the home. John Caswell mean anything to you?

Must stop -

Well, Sue, here we are, only five days till Graduation - Oh, I hate to sigh these things - I never know what to say, especially to a gal I think so much of! Hey, this picture of me is gemmy! Hope you have a really terrific Senior Year - just work for it. It's worth it, believe me! What would this school be without Sue Otto's sense of humor, tales of college weekends, good humor, and wonderful personality?

It's been really, really great knowing you these two years, Sue. I hope you'll drop me a line & let me know how things are going at SPH.

Take life real eassey, keed, and stay sober. Keep up that fabulous spirit, and be good. All the best in the world to you, Sue. Love, me.

QUEEN'S COURT

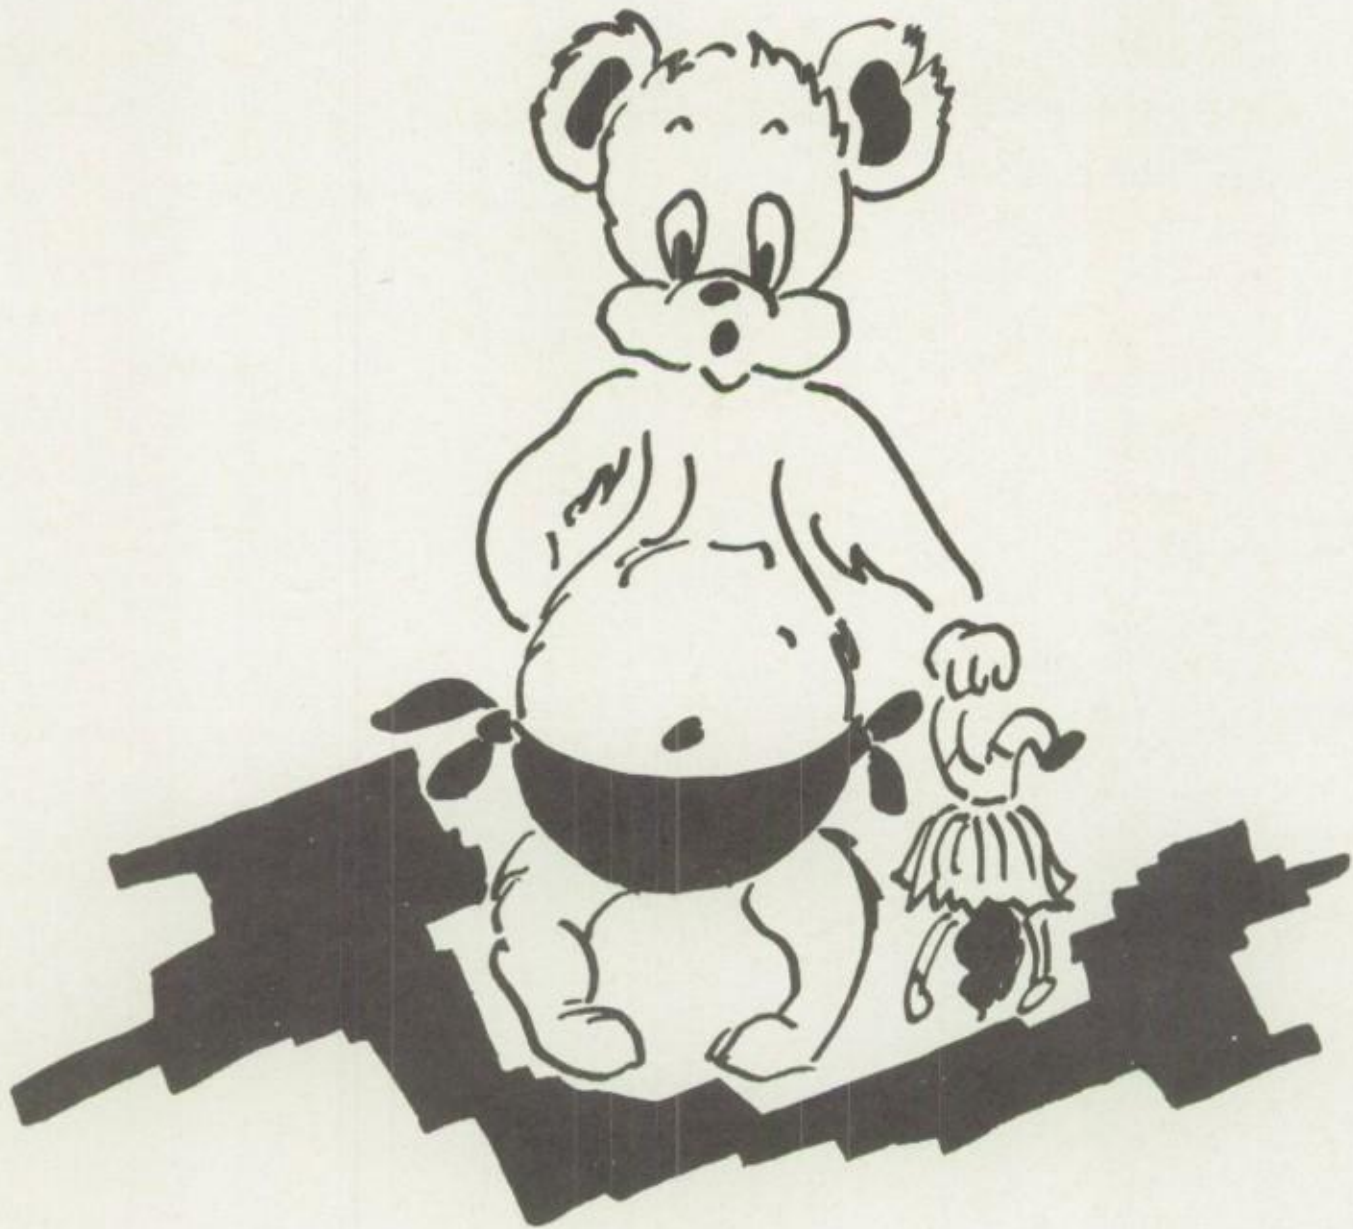

Marilyn Morley, Amey Barger, Mary Louise Salinger, Suzanne Campbell, Sherrie Stephens, Renate Kohn-Olaya, Suzanne Kendall.

Every year here at Stoneleigh seven girls are elected from the Senior Class by the student body and faculty to stand in the Queen's court. They are chosen on the merits of Friendliness, School Spirit, Leadership, Loyalty, Popularity, and Beauty. The girl who receives the most votes out of these seven Seniors—Marilyn Morley, Amey Barger, Weesie Salinger, Suzanne Campbell, Sherrie Stephens, Rennie Kohn-Olaya, and Sue Kendall—is the Queen and will be crowned at the June Day Festivities. The identity of the queen is not revealed until that time. All are anticipating the moment when the dancer will curtsy before pronouncing her the June Queen of 1957.

Dear Seniors:

We find it difficult to believe that next year we will join the long line of distinctive Senior Classes of Stoneleigh. As the biggest class in the school, we certainly have the potential to shoulder the responsibilities set before us.

Our Class President, Barbara Lloyd, and our representative to Student Council, Sue Buckner, have both been a credit to the class.

Our "High Times" staff has worked hard all year to put out a paper that would be appreciated by all. Under the leadership of "Mike" Hughes as editor-in-chief, we feel that the results have fully justified the effort.

In order to raise money for our Yearbook, we sponsored a dance with New Hampton, sold sandwiches, and ran a very successful Junior Prom Weekend in the Spring.

To you, Big Sisters, we wish all the luck in the world, and hope that all your dreams come true.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1958.

Third row: Diane Tatem, Patricia Patten, Mary Ann Marks, Sandra Shaw, Beverly Mack, Mona Espy, Mary Alice Fenn. Missing: Julie Sonntag.

Dear Seniors:

Our class grew to such an extent during the summer, that we delayed elections until the end of the fall term, when our able leaders were chosen.

We are very proud of our two classmates, Janet MacLaughlin and Sue Fowler, who have earned high honors each term. Janet is also our class representative to the Student Council, and has done an excellent job.

Our first dance was held with Proctor Academy in November, and this activity, along with the proceeds from the sale of ice cream throughout the year, have made our treasury grow.

We are grateful to Mrs. McFee for her wholehearted cooperation, particularly during our very successful Winter Carnival Weekend which we held in February.

Thank you, Seniors, for your guidance and understanding.

Laughing Joan and pensive Bev.

Dear Seniors:

Under the leadership of our strong-minded Class President, Sue White, the Freshmen have completed their first year at Stoneleigh, with the exception of Betty Killam, Earlyne Cook, and Linda Strecker, who were here last year. We have found boarding school a new and wonderful experience. Along with Sue, we elected Betty Killam, Vice President; Beverly Mitchell, Secretary; and Joan Mitchell, Treasurer. Mrs. Deems has been a very patient and understanding advisor, and her help has been greatly appreciated.

This year, Freshman Class projects have included a profitable raffle, a dance, and cookie-baking.

We have all found Stoneleigh a very warm and wonderful place, and are looking forward to next year with much enthusiasm.

With the best of luck to you all.

RIDING CLUB

The Riding Club consists of twelve girls chosen by Mrs. Goodyear for their excellent horsemanship. They are permitted to go riding at any time, and, since most of them own their own horses, spend most of the day out on the trails. The group was in charge of the two horse shows, held in the Spring and Fall, and also had the added treat of attending the show in Madison Square Garden. During the winter term, the club was host to Mr. Fischer, a well-known instructor, who entertained the school with a lecture and films.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mrs. Emerson, Susan Buckner, Betsy Barry, Barbara Lloyd, Suzanne Kendall, Mary Louise Salinger, Susan White, Renate Kohn-Olaya, Janet MacLaughlin.

This year, the Student Council was merged into a single governing body made up of representatives elected from each class. A new constitution was drawn up, and a more effective disciplinary system introduced. Weekly Faculty-Student Council meetings were established in order to promote a closer relationship between the students and teachers, as well as to aid in the better understanding of the needs of each group. The hard work of these girls has made Stoneleigh a better place in which to live.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

Renate Kohn-Olaya, Mary Ann Marks, Mrs. Kells, Suzanne Kendall, Patricia Robison, Marian Williams.

One of the most active organizations at Stoneleigh, the Athletic Council arranges intramural sports, schedules contests between the Chanticleer and Corazon teams, and plans a horse show in May, as well as choosing the All-Star and Varsity teams at the close of each sports season. The Council is also in charge of producing and directing the Stoneleigh Scandals, an annual humorous review presented each year.

This year's Juniors took on their traditional project of the school newspaper, "High Times," under the able leadership of "Mike" Hughes and Steffie Kearley. Jerry Wesselhoeft, Dee Drainie, and Marie McDonnell have done a terrific job of rounding up all the news and notes of interest from all over the campus. Janka Thompson and Gee Goerke have provided the paper with clever photographs and illustrations. There has also been a great deal of original work, including short stories and poems, which were contributed by some of our more talented writers. Ann Evans' ably undertook the task of typing up these various and sundry articles for the publisher.

The staff, with the cooperation of many volunteer reporters from all the classes, put out four extremely successful issues, full of interesting and enjoyable reading. They are to be congratulated for their fine work.

GLEE CLUB

First row: Hughes, P. Robison, Olney, Craig, Asselta, Lloyd, Laidlaw, Hicklin, Fowler, G. Robison, Barry, Espy, Edson, Burch. Second row: Metcalf, Drainie, Holden, Campbell, Hawkins, Bird, Morley, Kohn-Olaya, Barger, Stephens, Stickney, Hunt, Chadwell, S. Johnson. Third row: Salinger, Kaye, Otto, MacLaughlin, Graff, Drake, Marks, Hough, Smith, Sacco, Kentnich, Whitton, Tracy, Woodhull, Patrick, Patten. Fourth row: Duffy, Fenn, Tatem, Mattoon, Hale, Shaw, V. Johnson, Ritzmann, Meistrell, S. Johnson, Prew, Schubert.

Every Monday afternoon the Glee Club meets in Coleman Hall under the direction of Mrs. Esther Norris. The club is composed of fifty-six girls. From these, twenty-four were chosen for a special choral group known as The Madrigal Club.

The Glee Club has appeared in concerts in Greenfield and Deerfield as well as on school programs. Its first performance of the year was given after the Tableaux in the Christmas service.

On February seventeenth, the Glee Club sang in the Methodist church for The University of Life.

The year's most popular and most anticipated event, however, is the operetta with Deerfield Academy which is presented on the third and fourth of June. A Gilbert and Sullivan work is usually chosen, and the two choruses are led by Mr. Ralph Oatley of Deerfield.

President STEPHANIE RITZMANN
 Advisor MISS HENRIETTA OTTESON

This year the Dramatics Club was an extremely large and active organization. With experienced advice from Miss Otteson, and under the leadership of Steffie Ritzmann, the club eagerly tackled their chosen projects.

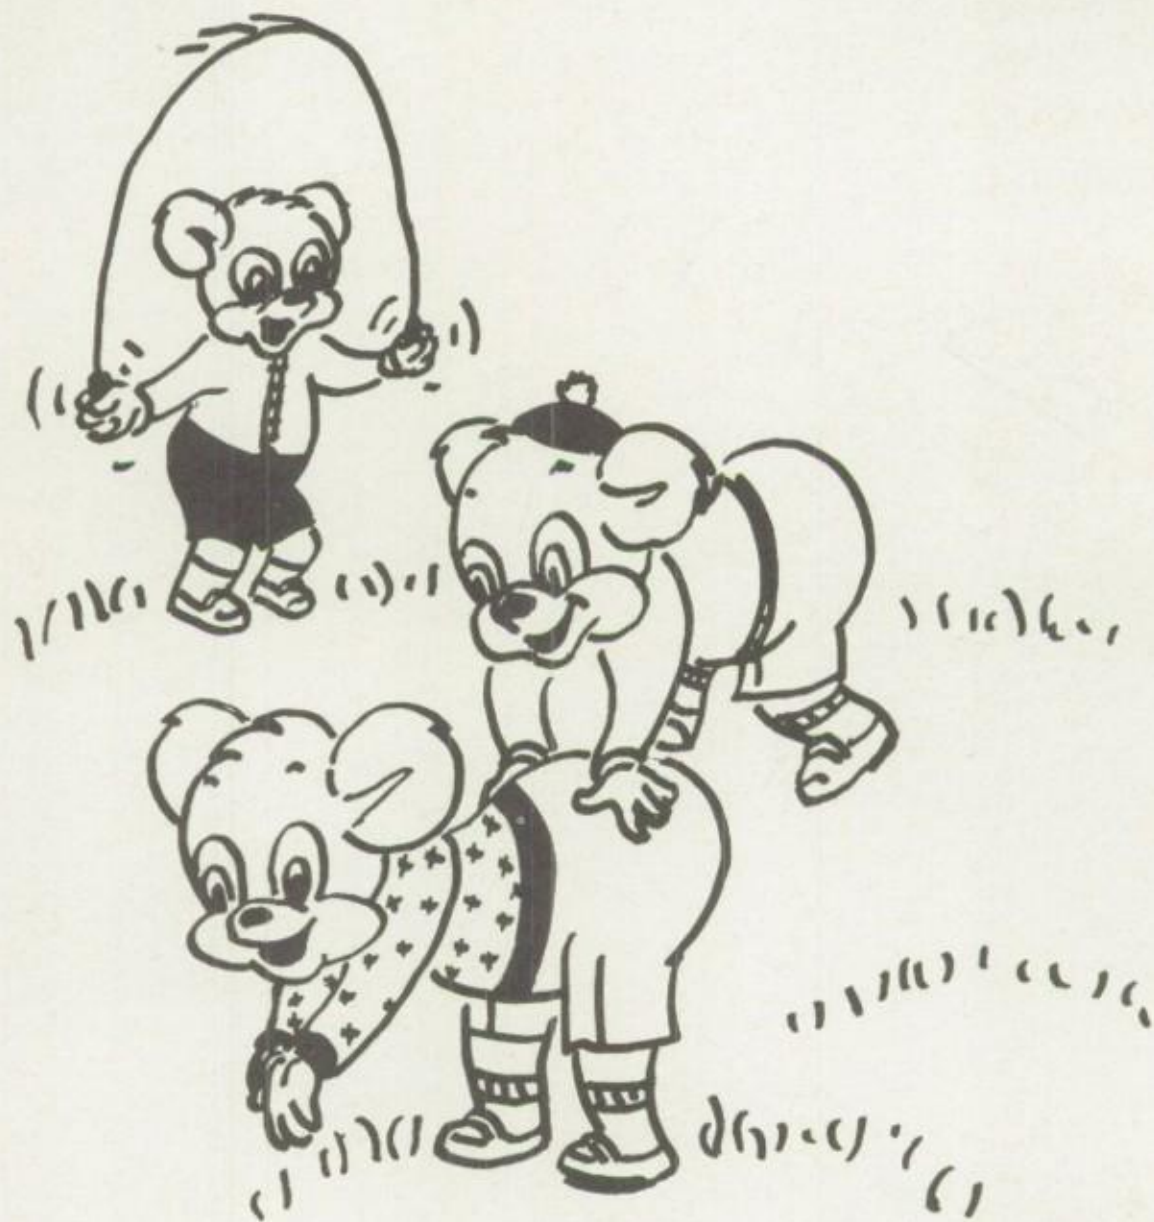

The first program of the year was the presentation of the annual Christmas tableaux; a beautiful re-creation of scenes of the Holy Family at Christmas time, taken from famous paintings.

The major production this year was "Our Town," a three-act play by Thornton Wilder which was given in April. However, it was not performed in the conventional manner, but along more modern lines, as a reading—the success of the play depending entirely upon the skill with which the parts are spoken. The large cast worked industriously to make it an enjoyable and forceful performance.

In the Spring, a fashion show was presented in co-operation with several Greenfield stores, which climaxed the year's activities for the club.

SENIOR WEEKEND

"Watch those appetites!"

The Guardian Angels

At 7:30 A.M. on the morning of February 15, 20 enthusiastic seniors, patiently guided by Dr. and Mrs. Stephens, along with Mrs. Robison, headed up to Pico Peak for the annual Senior Ski Weekend. We arrived at Long Trail Lodge at noon, and had the first of our many excellent meals.

The atmosphere of the Lodge was warm and friendly, with its large fireplace and rustic furnishings. Even the "snow-bunnies" were inspired! Pico Peak and Okemo afforded great opportunities for the skiers, who survived despite numerous spills, all gaily narrated.

There were many sad goodbyes Sunday morning as three carloads of tired, happy girls left Vermont and returned to Stoneleigh. The weekend was a wonderful mixture of happy confusion and the crazy antics of the one and only Senior Class.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the distinguished Senior Class of 1957, being of unsound mind and tormented soul hereby proclaim this document to be our last will and testament . . .

KAREN ASSELTA wills her Exeter scarf to Happy Patrick, and her fine grammar to Diane Tatem.

AMEY BARGER leaves the sun, sea, and friendship to Lucy Liebert.

LUCILLE BIRD gives back her sayings to Sue Drake, who is "too young."

SUE CAMPBELL wills her mashed potatoes to Jerry Wesselhoeft, and all the pianos to Mickey Marks.

KITTY CRAIG leaves the coke machine key to Jean Pfieffer and Judy Chadwell, and wills her single room to Bev Mack.

BARBARA KAYE takes her mononucleosis with her, and wills her "jungle pants" to Mrs. "E."

SUE KENDALL leaves her responsibilities to anyone without ulcers who wishes to get them.

RENNIE KOHN-OLAYA wills the thought, "Vive Paris, et les hommes" to Mike Hughes, and her sportsmanship to Janet MacLaughlin.

LIZ METCALF takes her Sunday caller with her, and leaves her "inside" knowledge of Greenfield.

MARILYN MORLEY leaves her long hair to Pat Duffy.

MARIANNE OLNEY wills her laugh to Jan Peek, and her accent to Janka Thompson.

STEFFIE RITZMANN leaves just two words to Penny Smith, and her page-boy curlers to Sue Otto.

GAIL ROBISON wills her own special chunk of Vermont moonlight to anyone who can truly appreciate it.

PAT ROBISON leaves her remaining 25 points to Jean Hale, and wills her philosophy of life to Mrs. Connell.

WEESIE SALINGER wills her D.A. to Dee Drainie.

WINNIE STEELE wills her Western saddle to Barb Lloyd, and takes her "Star" with her.

SHERRIE STEPHENS takes her versatility and idiosyncrasies with her, and leaves on time, for once.

CHARLOTTE STICKNEY wills her athletic ability to Debbie Graff, and takes her smile with her.

Solemnly witnessed,

Otto!
 Since you are an upper class-man
 I guess I should write soon thing! you know you are a sweet kid and all that rot. But, really in all seriousness I have had great times with you this year and you have helped make this one year at prep school for me a blast.
 Stay loose and always be the great guy that you are. Remember me to your mom and dad.
 senior loved stuff. See be a big junior in high school having a blast.
 Keep it cool — come to Ohio & visit me.
 Best of luck,
 Tina

To the crazy Otto -
 (Real original) Hur
 100 a really great kid with a terrific personality - we're really going to have a blast next year in Sr. corridor - Be good this summer and don't hit the bottle too often - as if you could keep away from it. Loads of luck, see!

To Otto -

One of the greatest kids I have ever known. We have certainly had some great times together this year - "The Butte Bank"

 etc. - and I'll always remember the apartment (with you falling off the stage) HA!!! - we will really have a blast next year - - - to we will have to get together this summer -

lots of luck,

Dec

Otto -
 It's been fun getting to know you this year.
 I'll always remember those latter sessions at the Butte Bank. Stay cool and all that "shit". Be good -

Well see, it's been fun remembering the over now! It has been fun though! I must admit! I'll our never forget our Biology Bird Walk also our moral friends at the Big Game! Drinks to stretching & come back from every weekend sober. Keep the spirit of the "A" forever.
 Best of luck next year

Dear Sue -

Honestly it doesn't seem possible this year has come to a close - don't think anything will top last year though - what a lot of laughs also this year -

Just think next year is the year - can't believe you kids will be "seniors" and we Juniors -

The best of everything Sue -

Love always,

Sydney

Sue -

It's been fun having you in English - you, Mitte, and I did our best to shake Mrs. Cornell - I guess we succeeded - next year we'll all have to be in the class again - the new teacher won't last two weeks -

Did you say Wordsworth was a fairy - you're right -

Love,

mac

Sue -

So the old English classes are finally over - I can't believe it!! I'm really going to miss them (like hell)! Have fun this summer and we'll see ya next year.

Love

can you believe that little 'ole 'otto's gonna be a big ole senior next year?!!! I don't know what the heck to write Jim running out of lies - just kiddin' - well if you really want to know Jim not kiddin' cuz I think you're the biggest bag in the whole school, with no personality, no fun and looks is Jim darn glad to go into looks!!!
All I can say is Jim don't even go into looks!!! your Spanish II class - I'd NEVER pass - not that Jim exactly passing with flying colors now but what can ya do? With a face and a brain like mine, not much!

Please don't mind my first witty paragraph I don't think its particularly amazing but Jim comes and you'll be when next year comes and you'll be signing all our yearbooks for the last time, that's when little ole "SNARE" is gonna be very sad.
you are gonna be the greatest senior class and we are gonna be lost
when you're all gone.
you're a real great kid, ya
love ya
